

I am not in favor of a national do-not-call list superseding the State of Indiana's. My frequency of unwanted telephone solicitations has decreased to next to nothing. My understanding is that the proposed national standard would be more lenient and lead to an increase in unsolicited calls. The Indiana law is working beyond my expectations. IF IT AIN'T BROKE, DON'T FIX IT!